LAST DAY OF FAIR AS INTERESTING AS ANY OTHERS

Prizes Awarded This Morning For Horses in Front of Grand Stand.

Floral Hall Kept Open Tomorrow.

RECORD CROWD YESTERDAY.

The wind-up of the tri-state fair, which began Wednesday at the West End fair grounds, came this afternoon after a most successful meet. The attendance for the four days more than pleased the members of the Paducah Fair association and it is believed that a greater fair on a much larger scale can be given in 1911. The crowd yesterday afternoon was the largest of the fair and it was estimated at between 4,000 and 5,000 people.

As today is "Traveling Men's Day" a big crowd and a jolly one at that is on hand. This morning prizes were awarded to saddle horses and rigs and this afternoon some excellent horse racing is being witnessed.

In every way the fair has been a success. The association could not have ordered better weather, nor could they have wished for bigger crowds. Yesterday afternoon the crowds filled the grandstand and were lined up in front and along the fence on either side of the grand stand.

Floral Hall has been a success and the association has decided to keep the hall open Sunday from 10 to 11:30 a. m. and 2 to 4 p. m. Sunday the grounds and hall will be open from 9 o'clock in the morning until 4 o'clock in the afternoon. All day long must be taken from the hall Monday afternoon or the association will be liable for the city of articles.

Racing Card. The racing card this afternoon consists of a free-for-all trot, an unrated pace and three running races. The entries are:

Trot—May Bond, Wilford G. Dick, Allen and Dutch.
Unrated Pace—Oleno, owned by J. H. Edwards; Little Joe, owned by H. S. Hickey; Dandy Dan, owned by William James; and Morning Star, owned by E. T. Edwards.
Five furlongs (running)—Pearl Hopkins, Billy, Eva Tanguay, Honcho and Day Deep.

Four furlongs (running)—Ikey Cohen, Miss Van DeBuren, Transon, Outlander and Lord Wells.
Three furlongs (running)—Wadley Lee, Ikey Cohen, Red Robin, Jaydower and Four Piece.

Mr. W. L. Talbot, licensed starter at Pontiac, Ill., who officiated here and acted as presiding judge, will have tomorrow for Jackson, Tenn., where he will officiate at the races here. He will be accompanied by Mr. Adolph Wolf, one of the directors of the Paducah Fair Association.

Today's Prizes. The winners at the fair this morning were as follows:

Best roadster, stallion, mare or gelding—"Banishhead," owned by R. W. Allen, first prize; Mr. Joe Friedman's horse, second.
Best pacing roadster—"Redbeam," owned by Mr. George Goodman and given by Earl Walker, first prize; "Pick Patchen," owned by Harry Myers, of Bandana, second prize.

Los Angeles Times Plant Blown Up With Dynamite and Score of Lives Lost With Half Million Property

Chief of Police Says He Has Positive Proof That Intruder Was Committed—Joll Call Shows Sixteen Dead.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 1.—Between 15 and 25 men are believed to have been killed outright and more than a score of others injured, when an explosion wrecked the plant of the Los Angeles Times shortly after 1:30 this morning. The big Sunday edition was being run off. As a result of the warlike waged for years between union labor and Gen. Harrison J. Ols, owner of the Times, friends of the publishing house openly charge that the building was dynamited. He followed and the plant was completely destroyed. The loss is half a million. Most of the dead were employed in the composing, stereotyping and mailing room.

Union men deny any responsibility for the explosion.

Chief of Police Galloway announced at noon that he has positive proof that the explosion was due to dynamite. Editorial and business managers assembled their employees for a roll call and then announced that at least 16 are dead, 16 are missing and 29 injured. The missing are believed to be dead.

San Antonio, Texas, Oct. 1.—Reports reached here this afternoon that 100 miners were killed in a fire-damp explosion in a mine at Calan, Mexico. A relief train has gone to the scene from Diaz.

ALLEGED GAMBLERS ARE SUED BY FATHER

Seeking to recover money that he alleges his son lost in a game of chance, A. A. Scarborough filed suit today in the McCracken circuit court against Ben Talley, Joe Cronch, James Grimes, Helen Westlake, Grimes, T. Elmsdorf and Frank. It is alleged by the father that his son, W. A. Scarborough, entered the house of the defendants on March 10, 1910, and was persuaded to enter a game of chance. As a result his son lost $117. Later it is alleged that a second visit was paid to the house by his son, and on this occasion he entered a game and lost $100. As father of the boy, Scarborough seeks to recover $657.

Retail trade in all lines has been benefited by the large number of visitors in Paducah this week. Practically every line of business has felt the stimulus of the visitors, who were out for pleasure, but the majority of whom found time to investigate the goods offered by Paducah merchants. Wholesale men report a good trade although their business is not quite as lively as the retail dealers, who are rapidly pushing forth their fall stocks.

Bloody Vanderbilt Course Kills Seven

Vanderbilt Cup Course, L. I., Oct. 1.—Harry Grant, winner of the Vanderbilt cup last year, again won that trophy in today's historic motor races. The time in an Alco car for the distance of 278.08 miles was 4 hours, 15 minutes, 58 seconds. "Bill" Endicott, driving a Cole 30, won the Massepequa sweepstakes, 126.4 miles, in 2 hours, 18 minutes and 4 seconds.

Walter Bacon, mechanic for Harold Stone, driving a Columbia car, was instantly killed when the machine struck a telegraph pole near Meadow Brook bridge at the start of the race. Stone was fatally hurt. Howard Hall, mechanic for "Wild Cat" Burman, driving a

LEON LING FOUND.

Laredo, Texas, Oct. 1.—A Chinaman giving the name of Lo Sing, arrested here on a charge of smuggling his way into Texas from Mexico, is suspected today of being Leon Ling, murderer of Elsie Sigel, the New York missionary, a year ago.

MONSARRAT DIES IN NEW YORK CITY

FORMER PADUCAH RAILROAD MAN PASSES AWAY WHILE IN THE EAST.

New York, Oct. 1.—Nicholas Monsarrat, of Columbus, O., president of the Kanawha & Michigan railway, died suddenly here yesterday.

For nine years Mr. Monsarrat was a resident of Paducah and general manager of the Memphis, Paducah & Northern Railroad company before it changed hands. Mr. Monsarrat came here in 1876 and went to Akron, O., in the spring of 1884, when the construction of the present Illinois Central shops was begun. He later went to Columbus, where he was president of the Cleveland, Akron & Columbus railroad and also the Columbus, Hocking Valley & Toledo railroad.

Mr. Monsarrat was a personal friend of City Auditor Alex Kirkland, who was associated with him for eleven years. Mr. Kirkland went to Akron with him and remained there some time. Mr. Monsarrat was associated with B. H. Wilson and Q. Q. Quigley, of Paducah, was a contemporary. He will be well remembered here, where he had many friends. He was a member of the Elephant Club of Paducah while here. His family resided in Columbus. Mr. Monsarrat spent his summers at Seagirt, N. J., and Mr. Kirkland received a letter from him several days ago in regard to a business matter.

Report of Recruiting Station.

During September Sergeant C. A. Bane at the local army recruiting station had 29 applicants and only 7 were accepted.

MAIRIAL NEEL'S SON HURT IN A RUNAWAY.

Gourney Neel, son of Elwood Neel, was injured this morning at Twelfth and Trimble streets when his horse ran away. He was thrown from his buggy and lost his hold on the lines. However, Mr. Neel was plucky, and held onto the traces until he regained the lines and then stopped the horse. He was bruised and scratched all over the body, but he is not injured seriously.

New Senator Dies

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 1.—Napoleon Broward, United States senator elect, and former governor of Florida, died at his home here today.

"LOVE OUR HOMES, BUT, YOU PADUCAH!" CLERKS RESOLVE

Frankfort Gets Next State Convention of County Court Officials.

Gus G. Singleton is Elected President.

HAD A GOOD TIME IN THIS CITY.

With nothing but words of praise for Paducah, the Kentucky County Court Clerks' association adjourned formally today at noon. Until next year, when the association will meet in Frankfort. The meeting was a success from every angle, and was replete with social functions that made the session enjoyable as well as profitable.

The session was closed this morning with the election of officers and the selection of the capital of Kentucky for the next meeting.

Col. Gus G. Singleton, who has been host of the meeting in Paducah, was elected president by acclamation, succeeding F. G. Corley, of Elizabethtown, who has been president five years. John B. Dillon, of Newport, and E. P. Taylor, of Owensboro, were elected vice-presidents. S. T. Dougherty, of Lagrange, was elected treasurer. William T. Mills, of Madisonville, was re-elected secretary. All the officers are capable men, and will work faithfully for the strengthening of the association.

The race for meeting next year proved interesting. Frankfort, and Lexington desired the meeting for

Have Gone to Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Jarrett have gone to Chicago and will go from there to Los Angeles, California, to attend the meeting of the National Bankers' association, to which Mr. Jarrett was recently appointed a delegate. They will be gone for about four weeks.—New Era, Hopkinsville.

Fire Department.

The fire loss during the month was about the heaviest during the summer. There were 13 alarms during the month, but several of the fires resulted in considerable loss. The largest fire was on September 19, when the feed store of T. E. Ford burned. The Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis wharfburn was also damaged by fire.

METROPOLIS TO HAVE THE SHOPS

ACCORDING TO STATEMENT ATTRIBUTED TO ENGINEER OF BURLINGTON.

Metropolis, Ill., Oct. 1.—E. P. Weatherly, resident engineer in charge of the Burlington work, said:

"A 'Y' will be built into Metropolis from the Davison place. A large yard will be established at that point, which will be the Metropolis terminus of the double track steel bridge."

The Burlington owns 75 acres of ground at the Davison farm. This is ostensibly for railroad shops, although Mr. Weatherly was reticent on this point.

Metropolis will be made a division point. A corps of telegraph operators and a number of sub-officials will have their offices here.

The telegraph line is being built into Metropolis. It will reach here in about two weeks and Mr. Weatherly will then remove his offices from Marion here.

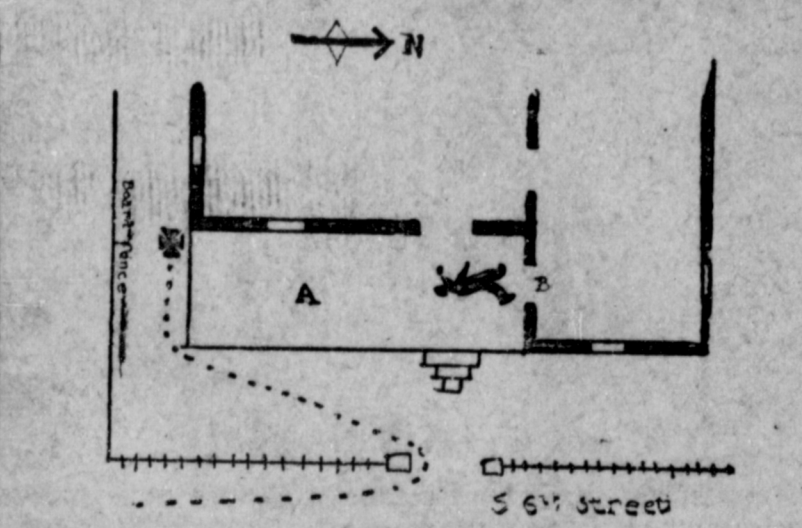

The Kurtz building at the corner of Ferry and Second streets will be torn away and a combination passenger and freight depot will be built at this place.

Later, when the bridge is built, this will be used exclusively for a freight depot, and a fine passenger station will be erected on the site of the colored Baptist church, at Seventh and Vienna.

Sugar Weighers Free

Washington, Oct. 1.—President Taft today pardoned four weighers convicted in connection with the sugar trust frauds. Immediate releases from prison are granted Thomas Kehoe, Patrick J. Hennessy, Edward H. Boyle and John T. Coyle. They testified that Helke and Gerbracht, officers of the company,

CAPT. W. J. STONE SERIOUSLY HURT BY FALL FROM STEPS OF HIS HOTEL

Former Congressman Was Attending Tobacco Meeting at Clarksville—Ribs Broken.

Kuttawa, Ky., Oct. 1. (Special.)—Capt. W. J. Stone was brought here this morning from Clarksville, Tenn., where he had fallen down the steps at the hotel and broken three ribs. He will recover. Captain Stone was formerly congressman from the first district and is the father of Mrs. S. J. Snook, 1500 Broadway, Paducah.

Captain Stone was attending the annual meeting of the Planters' Protective association at Clarksville, where he was re-elected president.

Mr. J. W. Usher, of Mayfield, was unanimously elected vice-president; Mr. Felix G. Ewing, of Glen Raven, Tenn., was re-elected general manager; Mr. G. B. Bingham, of Cadiz, was elected secretary; Mr. John D. Scales, of Guthrie, who has been treasurer for the past year, was elected auditor; Mr. D. C. McGregor, of Clarksville, was elected treasurer; Mr. W. W. Radford, of Hopkinsville, was re-elected general inspector; S. Walton Forgy, of Elkton, was re-elected general counsel for Kentucky; Mr. A. E. Garner, of Springfield, was re-elected general counsel for Tennessee; Mr. J. M. Couts, of Springfield, was re-elected assistant general manager for the eastern district; Mr. John H. Keys, of Murray, was re-elected as general manager of the western district. General Inspector Radford has re-appointed all the sub-inspectors who have served during the past year.

STERILIZATION

SEHON'S PROPOSAL

LOUISVILLE MAN ADDRESSES

AMERICAN PRISON ASSOCIATION.

Washington, Oct. 1.—Before the members of the American Prison association, now in session here, George L. Sehon of Louisville, Ky., read the report of the committee on prevention and probation. Mr. Sehon's report contained a strong plea for the sterilization of the unfit and for a radical extension of the probation system.

"With such an alarming showing as from 50 per cent. to 60 per cent. of the children of our feeble minded institutions coming of defective heredity, is it not reasonable to suggest and advocate sterilization," said Mr. Sehon, "as one of the most important and effective of preventive measures?" Such a practice has already been recognized by at least three of our states—Indiana, Connecticut and California—as an absolute check on criminality. This committee also finds that an astonishing percentage of the inmates of almshouses, insane asylums and penal institutions of our eastern states are foreign born or children of foreigners.

"The general probation period should be longer duration. Paid probation officers are recommended. Society's first duty is the conservation of its own best element, and the state should have absolute power of review over every institution dealing with dependent or delinquent children."

Alvin Trotter. Alvin, the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Trotter, of 518 South Tenth street, who died yesterday of pneumonia, was buried in Oak Grove cemetery yesterday afternoon. The funeral was held at 4 o'clock at the residence, the Rev. G. B. Smalley, pastor of the Second Baptist church, officiating.

Grand Jury Finds 12 Indictments. No jury cases were taken up this morning in circuit court, which was in session but a short time. The grand jury returned 12 indictments, and these were set for trial next week, the attorneys appointed to defend the defendants. The indictments returned by the grand jury today are: George Graves, housebreaking; George Knapper, obtaining money by false pretenses; Alfred Burget, horse stealing; Robert Cook, grand larceny; Tom Cole, mayhem; Ford Jackson, obtaining money by false pretenses; Dave Fitzgerald, grand larceny; and a second indictment for petit larceny; Frank Minor, malicious cutting; Ruby Jones, malicious cutting. The cases in which no indictments were returned are: Carey Marsh, housebreaking; Francis Mahan, petit larceny; Sam Saseens, malicious assault; Bud White, grand larceny; Will Smith, alias Will Johnson, malicious cutting. In mentioning the fine of Walter Williams, colored, who was fined $90 in circuit court on the charge of disorderly conduct, his fine in police court was given as $50. However, the fine in police court was $100 and fifty days in the county jail. Williams appealed the case to the circuit court, and escaped with a lighter punishment.

Attacks License Ordinance. Attacking the city ordinance fixing the license fees, L. T. Clark filed an ex parte petition in the McCracken circuit court. Clark alleges that section 5 of the ordinance is in conflict with the statute, prescribing the government of cities of the second class. The section prescribes that city licenses taken out after July 1 shall be paid for six months, and not graduated, according to the number of months as is the case with licenses taken out before July 1.

LITTLE LIGHT ON MYSTERY OF McMANUS

VICTIM WAS HOME LOVING MAN AND HAD MANY FRIENDS.

NO POSSIBILITY OF BEING SHOT FROM HOUSE
NO ENMITY.

MURDERS THIS YEAR.

February 10—George Dozier, negro, trustee in city jail shot and killed by "Uncle Bill" Davis, colored, at 820 Harris street.

April 10—Unidentified red-haired youth murdered in woods near Pool road. Tom Farrin is being held charged with crime. (Outside the city.)

June 26—John Gibson shot and killed at home of Jennie Lynn, 832 Harris street by her brother, Jim Jones, alias Drake.

July 4—Rosa Stevenson, negro, stabbed to death in Rowlandtown by Margery Hines, alias "Black Maggie."

September 10—Jim Jackson, aged negro, shot and killed by wife, Rachael Jackson.

September 29—Frank McManus murdered by unknown assassin at door of home, 811 South Sixth street.

The Pool road murder was outside the city in the county. All the other murders were caught.

The police today are as far away from a solution of the mysterious murder of Frank McManus Thursday night as they were yesterday. There is hardly anything to begin upon as some theories advanced are discarded. Where to begin and how to arrive at some faint ray of light in the baffling crime is a question the police have failed to answer as well as who he was and to whence the man in black, McManus' assassin, went. It is probably the most confusing and outrageous crimes ever recorded in the annals of the Paducah police department.

"Who did McManus chum with?" is a question that has been put forth. That is easily answered. McManus had many friends among the brewery workers, but was not inclined to sociability away from home. After work McManus went home and stayed with his family. He was quiet and of a good nature and relatives and friends are unable to name an enemy.

The reward of $500 offered by the city of Paducah for the arrest and conviction of the murderer may be augmented by the Brewery Workers' union and allied unions of the Central Labor body. It is understood that a large reward is being made up. Hand bills, offering the $500 reward, were struck from the press yesterday afternoon and scattered all over the city. Today Chief of Police Singery and Captain Frank Harlan were busy mailing out notices of the reward to all parts of the surrounding country in the hope of being aided in the case.

McManus' body, which was embalmed and prepared for burial at the undertaking establishment of Mattil, Effinger & Roth, 130 South Third street, where the inquest was conducted yesterday morning by Acting Coroner C. W. Emery, was removed to his home, 811 South Sixth street this morning. It will be sent to Benton, Ky., at 7:45 o'clock tomorrow morning, via the N. C. & St. L. railroad and the funeral and burial held there.

There is not a single development in the murder case today and the police believe they have as hard a proposition as the Pool road road murder April 10 when an unidentified red haired boy was beaten to death with a club. All efforts are being made to get hold of some clue to the murder. It is too late for bloodhounds.

THEATRICAL NOTES

AT THE KENTUCKY.

Tonight—"The Girl From the U. S. A." and vaudeville.

Tuesday Night—Clara Lipman in "The Marriage of a Star."

Wednesday Night—Miss Margaret Anglin in "The Awakening of Helena Richie."

Last Half of Week—Morris vaudeville, with matinees Thursday and Saturday.

Vaudeville and Musical Comedy Combined.

Patrons of the Kentucky matinee today were greeted with a combined bill of vaudeville and musical comedy. The Morris circuit acts, booked for the last half of the week, which on account of the circus and other circumstances many people were prevented from seeing Thursday and Friday, are still under contract, so the management interspersed the acts throughout the performance of "The Girl From the U. S. A.," popular priced musical comedy. The same feature acts will be presented to the audience tonight.

The Season Opens.

Tuesday night the regular theater season at The Kentucky opens for 1910-11, with Miss Clara Lipman in "The Marriage of a Star," the French adaptation in which she has been running several weeks at the Princess theatre, Chicago. Paducah is her second stand after leaving the Princess, as she opens the season at Evansville Monday night. October will introduce three great American actresses to a Paducah audience: Miss Lipman, Miss Margaret Anglin and Miss Blanche Walsh.

Miss Lipman is entering on her first tour of the south, and her visit here will be made more interesting by reason of the fact that her husband, Louis Mann, who made a big hit here last season in "The Man Who Stood Still," will come to Paducah to see Miss Lipman for the first time in her new play. To have Mr. Mann in the audience and Miss Lipman on the stage will equip an episode worth watching.

Miss Lipman has been off the board four years and without an exception the Chicago critics have said she has improved in her art, without losing any of that pliancy, which made her so attractive in her hits of former years. She plays the part of a noted French actress, whose daughter reaches marriageable age and weds a young American. Thinking to remain young with two children, the star puts forward her best graces with the result that her son-in-law falls madly in love with her. This sobers the star and she assumes the proper role in the family circle. Tears and laughter are said to alternate in the depiction of the French woman's emotions.

Miss Anglin, America's Leading Actress.

From New York to Sidney, Australia, critics agree that Margaret Anglin has only one rival in the realm of emotional drama—Ethel Barrymore. Miss Anglin's career is a series of triumphs: "Mrs. Dane's Defense," "The Importance of Being in Earnest," "Zira," "The Great Divide," the "Awakening of Helena Richie" and magnificent productions of Shakespearean dramas are in the list. None has attracted more popular attention than "The Awakening of Helena Richie," in which Miss Anglin has appeared constantly for the last two years, with the exception of her Australian tour in Shakespeare and her performance of the Greek tragedy in the Greek theater of the University of California, the most remarkable artistic undertaking in the country. Miss Anglin opened Macauley's theater at Louisville Monday for a week's run, and will follow Miss Lipman Tuesday night at Evansville, coming here Wednesday night.

The Courier-Journal said yesterday:

"Margaret Anglin's attractive personality and finished acting in 'The Awakening of Helena Richie' have served to draw good-sized audiences to Macauley's this week, despite the fact that many of the regular playgoers have not yet fallen into their winter habits of amusement seeking, while not a few of them have not returned from their summer wanderings or country homes. The 'frailty of woman' theme seems never to lose interest. This is the first time many Louisvillians have had an opportunity to make the acquaintance of Miss Anglin across the footlights. While opinions differ as to the worth of the play in which Miss Anglin is at present appearing, the verdict in favor of the star is unanimous, and when she carries out her intention of appearing in comedy she will doubtless receive a cordial welcome here."

Virginia Harned Says Her Husband Ran Away.

Reno, Nev., Oct. 1.—Virginia Harned Sothern, the actress, filed suit for divorce against Edward H.

MISS MARGARET ANGLIN

At The Kentucky Wednesday Night in "The Awakening of Helena Richie."

Sothern, the actor, in the district court here.

Mrs. Sothern alleges failure to provide and desertion for a period of more than one year. The complaint is unsealed and sets forth that Sothern deserted her in 1906, ten years after their marriage in Philadelphia. Since that time, the plaintiff says, her husband has failed to contribute to her support.

This is the second suit for divorce filed by Mrs. Sothern. Two years ago she began an action but the decree was denied on account of Mrs. Sothern having never resided in Nevada.

Collars of Milk.

Imitation celluloid collars made of goat's milk are used in Paris by artisans, tradesmen, waiters and coachmen. The milk collars are said to be as serviceable as the celluloid and to have less polish, which makes them a great improvement. In preparing the milk for collars the curds are drained off the whey and subjected to high pressure, resulting in a substance that looks very much like celluloid. Milk collars have been used in Europe for some years for the making of billiard balls, combs, imitation bone, knife handles, and collar buttons.—Popular Mechanic.

FAREWELL SUMMER.

The meadows near the mill,
The fields that wander down
The edges of the town,
Beside the farmhouse door,
Farewell summer blooms once more.

Little asters blue and white,
As the stars at night;
Summer's flowers have blown away;
Now you come to make us say
When the fields are growing brown,
And the leaves come fluttering down.

Dear to me are days of spring,
And the summer makes me sing;
Winter has its times of cheer,
But the best days of the year
Come when, close beside our door,
"Farewell summer" blooms once more.

— Cecil Cavendish in St. Nicholas.

Farewell Summer!

A merry-go-round week it has been. Nothing stiff, formal or ultra swell. Just the old-time fair, the circus, big crowds and something doing all the time. Society wore its summer clothing and had a thoroughly enjoyable Summer-end sort of pleasure. There was a haze in the atmosphere and a haze in the feeling. They seemed to accord well.

Next week the clubs begin and then away with ease-in idleness. Those year-books just appear you with the work they have mapped out. But the call will be met as Woman is able of meeting the demands in her. She is a regular nature anyway, and can turn from Gossip to Art at the September with all ease.

Almond-DuBois. The marriage of Mr. George Stanley DuBois, of this city, and Miss Ethel Almond, of Lynchburg, Va., will take place on Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock at Lynchburg.

The wedding will be solemnized in the active old family home of the Almonds. It will be characterized by high beauty and simplicity. Mr. William Almond, brother of the bride, will give her away. The only attendant will be Mr. DuBois' best man, Mr. Edwin J. Paxton, of this city.

The couple will leave at 7:20 o'clock for a bridal trip to New York and the Catskills, and will be at home in Paducah after October 25, at the Empire Apartments, Broadway.

Mr. DuBois and Mr. Paxton left Friday for Lynchburg. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley DuBois will leave on Sunday to attend the wedding. Mr. Henry Cave, a cousin of the bride, will go on Monday to Lynchburg for the event, and Mr. and Mrs. Sanders Almond, of Baltimore, will be among the out-of-town guests.

Richardson-Weir Wedding a Church Ceremony.

The marriage of Miss Cora Brockman Richardson, of this city, and Mr. Herbert Heck Weir, of San Bernardino, Cal., will be solemnized in Wednesday, October 12, at 10:30 o'clock in the morning at the First Baptist church. The Rev. M. E. Dodd will perform the ceremony. The only attendants will be the ushers, Messrs. Durward Sutton, James Paxton, Robert Githrie and W. W. Rogers. The bride will wear a pretty traveling suit and the couple will leave immediately for the west. No invitations have been issued in the city, where Miss Richardson's friendship circle is an especially wide one.

Mr. Weir is expected to arrive from California next Wednesday.

Informal Parties to Miss Richardson

Miss Ella B. Wilhelm will entertain with a Linen Shower on Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Cora B. Richardson, an October bride. It will be limited to the girls of the 1906 graduating class, of which Miss Richardson and Miss Wilhelm are members.

Miss Blanche Mooney, of the "1906 class," will entertain Miss Richardson and her friends with a river party on the G. W. Robertson next Saturday afternoon.

Box Parties for Miss Lippman.

Clara Lippman's engagement at the Kentucky on Tuesday evening will open the theatrical season, and the event will be one of especial social interest. There will be several box parties in honor of the occasion. Mr. Joseph L. Friedman will entertain with one and Louis Mann, Miss Lippman's husband, will be Mr. Friedman's guest. Another box party will be given by several of the younger society men.

Anniversary Reception.

Dr. and Mrs. P. H. Stewart will receive their friends informally this evening from 8 until 12 o'clock at their home, 226 North Ninth street, in celebration of the twentieth anniversary of their marriage.

Attractive Art Afternoon.

The first open meeting of the woman's club for this season will be under the auspices of the Art department of which Mrs. Victor Voris is the versatile chairman. An exceedingly attractive program has been arranged and will be presented on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the club house. An address will be made before the club at this time by Mr. Leavitt, the noted artist. He will talk on "The Lights and Shades of the Latin Masters." Miss Shelton will give a vocal number and Miss Lillie Mayes Sutherland will render a double piano number.

Miss Anna Bird Stewart.

An exceedingly clever take-off on the suffragette is Miss Anna Bird Stewart's "Latest Views of the Late English Poets in Woman's Suffrage" in "The College World" for October. It is a series of verses "after the manner" of Goldsmith, Gray, Burns, Wordsworth, Hood, Shelley, Scott, Rossetti, Tennyson and Henry; short and quite to the point, with much "poetic license," as the author phrases it. Miss Stewart's friends in Paducah who have enjoyed her brightness and have felt she should share some of her versatile talents with the world, will welcome this recognition of her sparkling ability. She also has a short story in the same magazine that is very indicative of Miss Stewart's delightfully keen sense of humor. Mr. Eustace Hale Ball, of New York, who is also well known here, has an article on "The New Football Game" in this College World.

One of the cleverest of Miss Stewart's verses is as Tennyson would put it, thus:

"Come into the voting, Maud,
For our cause at last is won.
Come unto the voting, Maud,
Such a handsome man to run.
The ballot boxes are really cute,
And it's such a lot of fun."

There has fallen a splendid tear
From the officer at the gate.
She is coming the dove, the dear,
She is coming! (He's not elate.)
The clerk cries out, "She is near,
She is near."
Her leader weeps, "She is late."
The polls have closed and they've gone for beer,
But she has her hat on straight.

California Tribute to Paducah Bride.

The San Bernardino Daily Sun of September 25, makes social mention of an approaching Paducah-San Bernardino wedding as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Richardson, of Paducah, Kentucky, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Cora Brockman Richardson, to Mr. Herbert Heck Weir, of San Bernardino, and the date of the marriage as Wednesday, October 12, the ceremony to occur at 10:30 in the morning, at the First Baptist church in Paducah.

This interesting announcement by the bride-elect's parents, is very appropriately made simultaneously in the Kentucky city, where the charming southern girl has spent her entire life, and in the home city of the prospective groom in which he is regarded as one of its most prominent and popular young business men. It was in this city, too, that the romance had a beginning, during the extended visit which Miss Richardson made to her sister, Mrs. O. B. Jones, in the

with much "poetic license," as the author phrases it. Miss Stewart's friends in Paducah who have enjoyed her brightness and have felt she should share some of her versatile talents with the world, will welcome this recognition of her sparkling ability. She also has a short story in the same magazine that is very indicative of Miss Stewart's delightfully keen sense of humor. Mr. Eustace Hale Ball, of New York, who is also well known here, has an article on "The New Football Game" in this College World.

The announcement will come as a surprise to the majority in the circle of friends and business associates of the groom-elect, which is a wide one. He will come in for no end of congratulation on his good fortune, and the proverbial "shower" of felicitations will be an unusually heavy one.

Though Mr. Weir is a native of London, Canada, he came to San Bernardino some years ago with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Weir, and the family is a well known one in the city.

Entering the San Bernardino National bank eight years ago as a stenographer, Mr. Weir later filled the position of bookkeeper and clerk, making himself of value to the institution, and now holds the important place of teller. He is a popular member of the Elks lodge.

After the wedding the bride and groom will leave immediately for the Golden state, but will make a leisurely trip westward, with stops of several days in Louisville, Chicago, Denver, Salt Lake and San Francisco, the scenic route of the Denver and Rio Grande being included in the itinerary.

Enjoyable Evening at Westley Hall.

The Kitchen Shower given the Ramsey society of the Broadway Methodist church last evening in the Wesley Hall of the church, by members of the church and friends, was a most pleasant occasion. The gifts were varied and numerous and much clever contriving was displayed in them. One package was a dish and a spoon accompanied by a poem telling how "the dish ran away with the spoon" and came to the Ramsey shower. The Buck Range and Stove company of St. Louis and the Rhodes Burford company sent a handsome Buck range with their compliments. In addition to the many nice and useful kitchen utensils there was a kitchen table, kitchen clock, lot of tea towels, barrel of flour, 60 lbs. of sugar and money contributed, and the women of the Fair this week? That is what Aunt Jane—everybody's dear "Aunt Jane of Kentucky"—called her quilts, you know, in the most heart-grIPPING chapter of that delightful book. They were there, "every pattern that the ingenuity of Woman could devise," the "four-patches," "nine-patches," "rising-suns," "log-cabin," "wild-geese-chases," "hexagons," "diamonds," "orange-trees" growing tulips, holly and grape effects. A perfect riot of variety and color; also the pure white quilted imitation of the Mar-selles counterpane. They caught the eye on entering Floral Hall and held the interest of woman-kind throughout; a formidable rival of the beautiful embroideries, drawn-work, crochet, etc. of the more modern articles. What was the charm? It was an "open sesame" into a time that will be no more. It was as "Aunt Jane" says perhaps, "there ain't nothing like a piece o' calico for bringin' back old times, child, unless its a flower or a bunch o' thyme or a piece o' pennyroyal"—anything that smells sweet." The beautiful even stitches, the thoughts that were sewn into them. They drew you some way to look at them again and again. They represented work—a vast amount of it, but they were restful withal. What the woman of today puts into her platform speeches, her club papers, her public and multitudinous work, the woman of long ago sat still and thought and stitched into her quilts. It is as "Aunt Jane" says, "some folks has albums to put folks' pictures in to remember 'em; by, and some folks has a book and writes down the things that happen every day so they won't forget 'em; but, honey, these quilts is my albums and my diaries." ## Daily Thought.

A single grateful thought toward heaven is the most complete prayer.—Lessing.

A feature that might have added interest to the fair and was overlooked by the management, was the hobbie skirt race.

Germany is working on a "crewless warship." Andy Carnegie has the Kaiser beat; he is working on a "warless civilization."

The Louisville Herald says there is a Whelan-Paynter-Head combination to defeat Ollie James and McCree and Judge Hendrick.

The Memphis papers insinuate that Birmingham can't "spread her self" much on her increase in population, as she had already spread all over Jefferson county, Alabama, in anticipation of the census.

Congressman Owsley Stanley, of the Second district, engaged in fist-cuffs at Henderson as the result of his own intemperate language. Owsley is an immense fellow physically and he knocked his antagonist down. Somehow, we always sized Owsley up as a prettier figure of a man in a street brawl than on the floor of the lower house of congress.

Ambition, coupled with determination, energy and unwavering singleness of purpose, will conquer every difficulty. We know of no more inspiring story than the rise of William Lorimer, of Chicago, from bootblack to United States senator, unless it is the rise of Henry C. Ostermann, of the Ostermann Manufacturing company, from newsboy to head grafter of the Illinois Central.

Teddy "Beat 'em to a frazzle" and captured the New York Republican state convention. Democracy unfortunately didn't have anybody to "beat Tammany to a frazzle." If the Republicans had not had a Roosevelt, they would have been in the same shape as New York Democracy. We must not depend on Roosevelt and Bryans to save us. Let us have the popular primary, the initiative and referendum and the recall, and we won't need champions to fight our battles in conventions.

THE REVIVAL.

Tomorrow the big union revival begins at the Auditorium rink under Doctor Torrey. There be many, who object to revivals on the ground that they appeal to the emotions. They do frankly, and intemperate zealots sometimes get overly excited; but that is a question of individual temperament and self-control. The fact remains that the man or woman, whose emotional faculties are never stirred, are not intellectually properly developed. The heart, as we call it when we speak figuratively, is as important as the head, by which we mean the reasoning faculty. A person, who is emotionally intemperate, we consider not well balanced; but the person, who never feels an unalloyed emotion—whose never revels in un-restrained laughter nor knows the sweetness of unblended tears that fall in sympathy with another's woes, is not half living. Dr. Torrey is no sensationalist. He is a great preacher, of power in the pulpit, deep learning and conviction and superior intellect. We hope immense benefit to the citizens of Paducah will result from the meetings.

THE MIDNIGHT ASSASSIN.

Newspapers, that maintain a discreet silence upon the moral questions of the hour, when a murder is committed and the murderer is a hunted man with everyone's hand against him, can blossom forth in the boldest denunciation of the crime and the criminal, feeling perfectly sure that they won't lose a subscriber or contravene the selfish interests of a single person of influence, by aligning themselves for once on the side of truth and right. They remind us of some dogs we know, that will bark at anything they see running with the other dogs after it.

Everybody thinks it is wrong to commit murder; everybody commends every effort put forth by the authorities to catch the criminal; everybody thinks speedy justice should be meted out to the perpetrator of a midnight assassination. One has just been committed in Paducah. In justice to the police department it should be said that this particular crime was not one that arose from immoral conditions permitted to exist; and it could not be prevented. Either an insane man committed the crime or some personal motive actuated it. Of course, it is up to the police department to ferret out the crime, and it is equally the duty of every citizen, who knows any facts, existing before or arising since the crime that would throw any light on the mystery, to inform the police.

The only other murder committed during the year in which the murderer is at large, was the Pool road murder, and that was in the county. The city administration is to be commended for promptly offering a substantial reward for the detection of the criminal. It must be clearly shown that society will not tolerate the gratification of personal malice and that human life is sacred in Paducah.

This crime was peculiarly atrocious, for that it was deliberately planned and coldly executed, the murderer lying in wait in the darkness for his victim. There is no palliation, no extenuation in the name of "heat and passion." Lawlessness, which has in it an element of selfishness and deliberate disregard of the rights of others in any respect, is especially repulsive and contemptible, whether it consists of a violation of a city ordinance, or the commission of the most heinous crime on the calendar, of which the present mystery of Paducah, is one.

LET US BE FAIR.

An atrocious crime was committed today when the plant of the Los Angeles Times was blown up with dynamite. The perpetrator of the crime chose their hour with diabolical skill, touching off the fuse while the Sunday edition was going to press and stereotypers, engravers, pressmen and operators were busy. Over a score were killed and a half million dollars in property was destroyed.

The Times was not only a "scab" paper; but it was particularly abusive of the unions. Naturally, some people will say at once, the outrage was the work of union sympathizers. That is unfair; for it leaves the impression that the unions of Los Angeles, and especially the typographical union, condone the offense.

Probably there are some fools in the Los Angeles unions. There are fools in everything else we know of. No doubt, in their meetings the union men denounce Otis quite as strongly as he abuses them in his paper, and it is not unlikely that some half demented man, his brain set on fire by the fight with Otis, and inspired by the anarchistic screed of some such publication as "The Appeal to Reason," has become a convert to its system of political economy and committed the deed. Then again, the man may never have seen the inside of a union meeting. Let us be fair.

STATE PRESS.

Solid for Ollie.
 Hon. Ollie M. James, member of congress from this district, has announced his candidacy for the United States senate from Kentucky, to succeed Senator Paynter. We don't know the sentiment in other counties of the state, but we do know that old Marshall is solid for him, against all comers.—Benton Tribune, Democrat.

The Exceptions?

The News is pleased to see the announcement of Ollie James for United States senator. We hope he will be elected. Notwithstanding the fact that it is announced that he will have opposition in his congressional district, he will carry it solid, with a possible exception of one or two votes.—Carlisle News.

It was the splendid tribute paid Paducah by Dr. J. A. McCormack, of Bowling Green, in seconding the motion for the doctors to meet in Paducah in 1911 that enabled this city to be chosen unanimously for the next session of the Kentucky Medical association. Several cities invited the association, and the Paducah physicians put up a game fight, and with the splendid talk by Dr. McCormack won far easier than they expected. Dr. McCormack referred to Paducah as the cleanest city in the state, and said many other complimentary remarks about the city in regard to the good sanitary condition, and the steps toward improvement. His remarks were not taken down by the stenographer, but they set the physicians to thinking, and Paducah secured the next meeting unanimously. The Paducah physicians: Drs. H. G. Reynolds, Frank Boyd, J. T. Reddick, P. H. Stewart, and C. E. Kidd returned yesterday from Lexington.

It is a truism that no nation can be military without being warlike; no man can go constantly armed without incurring beligerent impulses. So, scientists have warned us that women cannot go about, carrying deadly hand pins thrust through their poller adornments, without becoming at heart Amazons. The following unexaggerated occurrence in the grand stand during the night performance of Ringling's circus, seems to give the sanction of illustrative fact to the theory of the psychologists.

One woman sitting behind another, whose immense hat totally obstructed her view of the performance, leaned forward and whispered a request that the one in front remove her hat. The one in front paid no heed, and, as the audience rapturously applauded daring feats of strength and agility or laughed uproariously at the antics of the clowns, the woman behind the hat, who could now and then catch tantalizing glimpses of figures flying through the air from a trapeze, became so frenzied with curiosity and presently the one in front with the big hat began to squirm and twist in a manner to attract the attention of those around her. She threw a ferocious glance behind her, and they all looked at the hidden woman, and then they saw her surreptitiously place her hand on the head of a pin in her own hat, which she held in her lap, and press the point into the region of the spinal chord of the woman in front. The big hat remained where it was but she in front reached up with her hands, pulled an immense hat pin from her hat, flourished it like a sword, and turning in her chair, jabbed the point into the knee of the woman behind her as though she intended to pin her victim to the seat.

"I can get into that game myself," she fairly shouted. And that ended the episode, though the men who witnessed it expected a deadly combat to follow.

TORREY REVIVAL BEGINS TOMORROW

SERVICES WILL BE HELD IN AUDITORIUM RINK DURING OCTOBER.

The big Torrey revival, which is to continue throughout October under the leadership of the Rev. R. A. Torrey, a noted evangelist, will begin Sunday afternoon promptly at 3 o'clock at the Auditorium rink, Tenth street and Broadway.

All plans for the meeting have been completed and the ring is ready. A large platform that will accommodate the choir of 500 voices has been erected in the south end of the rink and the Rev. Torrey will speak from this platform. The arrangement committee has been busy all week preparing for the meeting and today the last chairs and benches were taken to the rink. Several thousand people can be seated and it is predicted that this meeting will be the largest ever held in Paducah.

Every protestant evangelical church in the city will unite in the services. Sunday night most of the attend the revival. Services will be held every afternoon and every night. The hour for the evening services will be 7:30 o'clock while the hour for the afternoon services during the week has not been definitely decided upon. The first service begins at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Dr. Torrey and his co-workers arrived this afternoon. Mr. McKeown, the music leader, arrived last night. Dr. Torrey's staff consists of Mr. Simpson, soloist and Mr. Jacoby, organizer of personal work. The pianist will not arrive until Monday or Tuesday. She is en route from Ireland. The staff will make their headquarters at the Palmer House through the arrangement of the Paducah Protestant Pastors' association.

The general choir will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the rink for rehearsal. It will consist of between 200 and 500 church singers of this city.

Mr. McKeown the leader of the music for the Torrey revival is already in the city and will meet the chorus choir at 7:30 this evening at the Rink. All who expect to sing are requested to her present.

"LOVE OUR HOMES,"

1911, but the capital city won out on the roll call.

With a short speech of thanks, Colonel Singleton assumed the president's chair at the close of the session. He announced his committees as follows: Finance—W. T. Mills, J. A. Murray and U. S. King; resolutions—F. G. Corley, O. L. Mason and T. J. Neely; program—W. L. Davis; W. T. Mills and U. S. King; new members—J. B. Nichols, of Danville; W. F. Dixon, of Mayville, and W. D. Pinkston, of Odham county.

With the adjournment this morning the members went to the Palmer House, where a dinner was enjoyed before the final farewells were said. A number of informal after dinner speeches were delivered, and the county court clerk with pleasant memories of the meeting left this afternoon for their homes.

Resolutions.

The committee on resolutions brought in a report this morning, and it was adopted by the clerks. The report is: "We your committee appointed this morning to express our thanks for the courtesies extended by the press, county officials and especially Carney & Goodman, Paducah Fair association, With Wright, Joe Desberger, Louis Farrell and the Paducah & Illinois Ferry company. We beg leave to submit our report, that we have certainly had a most delightful time while in your city and we have had to ask for nothing as everything has been free. We shall each go home with this on our memories, 'We love our homes, but O you Paducah!'"

By a rising vote a special vote of thanks was extended to Col. Gus G. Singleton and his deputy clerks, who have extended every courtesy during the sessions. A special committee, consisting of H. M. Beard, of Breckinridge county; S. J. Dougherty, of LaGrange; and W. S. Tinsley, of Hartford, was appointed to draw up resolutions of thanks to Frank P. James, state auditor, and Charles N. Province, assistant auditor. For the benefit of the clerks these two officials have compiled a booklet containing all of the law regarding the duties of the clerks.

The meeting this morning was informal. The clerks discussed various topics that were interesting to them, and the compensation received. Vexing problems were brought up, and were discussed by every member present. Yesterday afternoon the clerks attended the fair and races, and last night they were the guests of the Paducah & Illinois Ferry company for a ride on the rivers. The heaters were attended, and this afternoon some of the clerks are attending the races before their departure for home.

CLEARINGS FOR WEEK.

New York, Oct. 1.—Dun's Review says:

Bank clearings continue to show considerable loss, the total this week at all leading cities in the United States aggregating $2,385,809,942, a decrease of 12.1 per cent., compared with last year, and of 25.1 per cent. compared with the corresponding week in 1909.

This loss, as usual, is mostly divided by the pronounced decrease at New York, the majority of the cities outside that center reporting more or less gain, among them being Baltimore, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Minneapolis, St. Louis, Kansas City and San Francisco.

Taken as a whole, the report does not show the seasonable advance, which is natural at this period, when settlements incident to the movement of the crops and the expansion of fall trade swell bank clearings very materially.

TOBACCO MARKETS.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 1.—There was no change in the tobacco market and the sales were light; no burley being offered.

The offerings follow:
 Original inspection, 67; reviews, 7; total, 71. Rejections Thursday, 29.
 Dark warehouse sold 38 hhds. dark at $4.70 to $12.25; ten rejections.
 Central warehouse sold 36 hhds. dark at $5.85 to $19.75.

LIVESTOCK.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 1.—The receipts of cattle were 84 head, making a total of 4,360 for the week thus far, as against 3,356 for the same days last year and 2,612 for a corresponding period two years ago. There were only a few local traders and butchers out, and their requirements were limited. The market generally ruled dull, with but little change to be noted so far as values or conditions were concerned. Prime to fancy butcher cattle were in fair demand, but it was a "slow drag" on the medium and inferior or near-beef kinds. Good inquiry for the best feeders and stock cattle, while plain and common grades were dull. Good bulls steady, common bulls and anners dull. Milch cows slow. No good, heavy steers on sale, but the feeling on that class was easy. The pens were well cleared, however. This might be attributed to light receipts rather than any special demand.

CALVES.
 Receipts, 80; for the week thus far 599. The market ruled about steady; bulk of the best 8 1/2 @ 8 3/4 c; some fancy higher; medium 6 @ 8 1/4 c common 2 1/2 @ 6 c.
HOGS.
 The receipts of hogs were 998; for be confusing. Both producers and consumers hold divergent views in the matter of prices. A substantial structural material aggregates a good tonnage on the basis of $11.43 at Pittsburgh. Demands for plates are somewhat lighter with a tendency toward slightly lower quotations.

Draper goods and men's wear for immediate shipment are in better demand, while spring business is limited. Dress gingham and sub-count prints in cotton goods are being offered freely, but staples are very quiet, although there is a moderate demand for print cloth, yarn goods for printers and converters' use, sales at Fall River last week running ahead of production.

Mills continue to curtail in cotton centers, and until the cotton crop is matured shipping agents are slow to move on prices for staples. Yarns rule generally quiet, with some improvement noted in the call for worsteds. The silk trades show decided steadiness and better tone.

Eastern footwear manufacturers are receiving larger orders for certain kinds of goods, and business again shows improvement this week, but other lines are as slow as ever. Trade in sole leather is improving, with sizable sales of union backs reported recently in the Boston market and tanners asking firmer values on about all tannages.

MRS. BRAGG IS REAL STRONG

In a Personal Letter, She Tells How Women May Increase Strength and Endurance.

Indianapolis, Ind.—"I feel so much better than I ever did in my life," writes Mrs. Charles Bragg, 1517 Cornell Avenue. "I have been real strong since I began to use Cardui. Tongue cannot tell how much Cardui has done for me. I can do a full day's work now without getting tired and having to stop and lay down every few minutes. It seems to me that there is nothing to equal Cardui as a tonic and strengthening medicine."

Women who do hard work of any kind, whether in stores, factories, or at home, often lose strength and energy, and soon feel, and look, prematurely old.

To keep young, when you begin to feel tired and unable to do your work, you should try a good strengthening tonic. You will find in Cardui a friend in need.

50 years of success, and thousands of letters like the above from Mrs. Bragg, surely prove that the best remedy in the world for women is Cardui, the woman's tonic.

All druggists sell and recommend Cardui. It will help you. Try it.

N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper on request.

Of Neoga, Ill., arrived today on a visit to the Rev. and Mrs. E. B. Landis, of South Sixth street.

Miss Alma Higgins, of St. Louis, will arrive on Monday evening to visit her sister, Mrs. Robert D. MacMillen, 1616 Jefferson street.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelton Hart left yesterday for their home in Fulton after a short visit to Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Hart, of West Trimble street.

Miss Pearl Hart, of Hickman, is visiting her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Hart, of Trimble street.

TAMMANY RULES

NOMINATES "FINGY" CONNERS SUCCESSOR FOR GOVERNOR.

Murphy Said He Kept His Promise and Gave Them An Up-State Candidate.

Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 1.—A state convention that will go down in political history as one of the most remarkable in the history of the Democratic party closed by nominating John A. Dix, chairman of the party's state committee and a wealthy Washington county business man, to run on a progressive platform of the wisest type for governor of New York.

Regarding the platform there was from the first little or no division of opinion. But the gubernatorial candidate was not chosen until Charles Murphy, boss of Tammany Hall, who, by virtue of his 213 delegates, was in opposition to control the convention, had canvassed the merits of no less than 14 others.

"I said I would give them an up-state candidate and I have done it," was Murphy's comment.

Congressman William Sulzer was the only other candidate for nomination for governor who took his case before the delegates. His defeat was decisive. Out of 450 votes he received 16.

Thomas F. Conway, of Clinton county, was named for lieutenant governor. Edward Lazansky, of Kings county, secretary of state.

Dix is 50 years old. He was born in Glens Falls, N. Y., received his early education in the home schools and graduated at Cornell in 1882.

Two years ago, with Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler as head of the ticket, Dix was nominee for lieutenant governor, meeting defeat. Last June Dix succeeded "Fingy" Connors, of Buffalo, as chairman of the Democratic committee.

Football Game Today.

This afternoon at League park the opening football game of the season is on between the eleven of the Paducah and Metropolis high school teams. Both teams are about equally divided in weight and owing to the rivalry between the eleven a good fast game is expected. A fair crowd of rooters and enthusiasts were out to see the sport.

The line-up of Metropolis is: Bunchman, re; Gravey, rt; Trousdale, rg; Helm, c; captain; Baker, lg; Lyton, lt; Kimball, lb; Wyant, qb; Morris, fb; Evans, hb; Grace, hb. The team was accompanied by Coach Mann. The weather was extremely hot for football.

RAILROAD NOTES

N. C. & St. L. Report.

The fifty-ninth annual report of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railway has been issued. It covers the fiscal year ended June 30, 1910. The total earnings, covering 1,230 miles operated, were $11,637,263, as compared with $11,122,114 for the previous year; total operating expenses $8,437,258, as compared with $8,350,700; net earnings from the traffic, $3,199,945, as compared with $2,771,413; percentage of expenses to gross earnings 72.5, as compared with about 75 last year; net earnings from traffic and other sources, $3,559,149; net income after the payment of interest, taxes, rentals, etc., $1,559,704; balance to profit and loss after payment of dividends, $959,625. The gross earnings of the road have increased in the past 10 years from $7,620,127 to $11,637,263. In the year ended June 30, 1907, the gross earnings were $12,238,472, but they fell off the next year to $10,738,252, since which time they have increased, the present year's earnings being greater than that of any other excepting 1907.

The company spent for betterments, equipment, etc., during the year $583,737, including $199,420 for freight equipment, $45,958 for passenger equipment, $93,993 for bridges, $46,817 for buildings, $45,845 for steel rails, $51,283 for double tracks, $82,865 for sidetracks, etc. There are now 251 locomotives, 232 passenger cars, 9,684 freight cars and 488 service cars; total cars, 10,404.

Heading for the River.

The New Orleans, Mobile & Chicago railroad now extends from Mobile, Ala., through Mississippi via Beaumont, Hattiesburg, Pontotoc and other points to Middleton, Tenn., with about 400 miles of track. The proposed extension to the Ohio river which may reach either Paducah, Ky., or Evansville, Ind., will be about 175 miles.

VICIOUS HOBOS

ATTACK COLORED FLAGMAN IN RAILROAD YARDS.

Boiler Makers and Machinists Play Ball—News of the Railroad.

Four hoboes attacked Dave O'Neil, a colored brakeman last night in the south yards, and he was worsted in the melee. O'Neil was on an extra freight train that was preparing to leave for Fulton. He made an inspection of the train, and discovered the four men concealed on the cars. He demanded that they get off, and his reply was a gun flashed in his face by one of the men. O'Neil grabbed the gun, and then some of the men slashed him with a knife and kicked him off the train. His wounds are not serious.

The Boiler Makers and the Machinists' baseball teams will play tomorrow morning on the diamond west of the shops. It will be one of the last games. Henry and Shelton will be the battery for the machinists while Dicke and Catchey will be the battery for the boiler makers.

A. E. Wilkinson, clerk in the trainmasters office, left today for Chicago, where he will be for several days on business.

C. O. Stallings, a foreman at Sturgis, is ill at the hospital of appendicitis.

Lark Purser, a conductor from Memphis, is ill at the hospital.

J. J. McNish received a severe wound in the forehead yesterday when a plank fell and struck him. He was unconscious for a few minutes, but is improving rapidly.

AN OLD-TIME PRESCRIPTION

In a modern product. From time immemorial sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost every one knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair and making it grow. In olden times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace, a method which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready to use product, skillfully compounded in perfectly equipped laboratories. Such a preparation is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, which is sold by all leading druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or which is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Corlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price. For sale and recommended by W. J. Gilbert.

In the history of fire insurance in America, a large majority of the fire insurance companies organized have failed or retired from business. To be insured in companies like Weil's, that have been in business a hundred years and will be in business a hundred years from now, costs no more than to be insured in one that may go out of business next week.

that ever had an audience about them in the woman's exhibit at the Floral Hall. Perhaps, they were eloquent in their silent testimony, too, of a time when "quills were crazy but life was sane."

Pretty Birthday Party.
A charmingly planned and carried out little party was given little Miss Virginia Hart in honor of her sixth birthday by her aunt, Mrs. Hubbard S. Wells, at her apartments in the Shamrock on Saturday afternoon. The rooms were attractively decorated in a color effect of pink and white. The birthday cake was white iced in pink rosebuds which outlined the name Virginia and the date, 1910-1910. The six candles were placed in the rosebuds. At each place was a pretty pink cap souvenir for each child, a pink doll and a full-blown pink rose filled with candy. Ices and cakes were served, carrying out the color scheme. Games were played on the porch. A donkey contest was the special feature of pleasure. A number of pretty gifts were received by the little guest of honor.

The 12 little girls who enjoyed the occasion were: Mary Frances Eaton, Flo Armentrout, Willie Gardner, Elsie Voris, Julia Ashton Bradshaw, Lena Utterback, Aline Berry, Margaret Wheeler, Katherine McKnight, Gabrielle Little, Barbara Nell Paxton, Virginia Hart.

The Art Exhibit.
A notable painting will be on exhibit here from October 6 to 20, under the auspices of the Woman's club. It is "The Last Supper," the masterpiece of W. Leavitt, the American artist. Leavitt will accompany the canvas here and will lecture each hour upon the Jewish customs of the Passover feast, the painting of the picture, and other features in art. It will be a liberal education in art to hear him and to view the picture under his guidance. An appreciation of the painting says:

Christ as the central figure stands looking out over the table as Judas disappears in the darkness. The fact of the betrayal is slowly breaking upon the startled minds of the disciples. All is wonder, consternation, doubt and dread. The impact of this thought shows itself in various ways in the faces of the disciples. John looks dazed with loving fear. Peter is indignant. Andrew hides his face in his hands, impatient in silent grief. The outline of the disciples fits into our Scriptural conception of them. They are rugged, honest wayworn men. Grizzled faces, seamed by wind and wave; rude, knotted hands, roughened with toil; open faces, whereon truth nobly sits. Saint Matthew's is especially a noble face. Being a tax gatherer, he offers more intellectuality than the others. Thomas is wrinkled with doubt. But the master holds the key to the picture. His face is luminous with divine light. This light transfigures him. From him it passes to the disciples; each receives the beams from this central sun. The eyes of Christ follow you with spiritual intent. Serenity reigns in the face—serenity of conscious victory. Already from the hill of Calvary he saw the glory of the Father and the conquest of the world. No one can look upon the picture without a sense of reverence for the great truths that he behead it. That is the province of art to eternalize truths, to open up before us in panoramic vision the spiritual concepts which lie back of life. We are grateful that one more attempt has been so well made to bring before our minds the Great Master who asks allegiance of our hearts in the service of the humanity He loved so passionately and for which He gave His life.

The following ladies from the club have been appointed to be at the hall during the days of exhibition:

NEW PATROL BOXES

ARE USED FOR FIRST TIME BY POLICE.

Double System Also Has Fire Alarm Attached to the Box.

The new Dean flash light police and fire alarm boxes are in working order, having been formally turned over to the city the alarm boxes make the police department more efficient than ever before, and in addition give the city better fire protection. The boxes were placed in use late yesterday afternoon, after the police were given a lecture on their use.

The boxes are equipped on circuits so that patrolmen on beats are wanted, a light is lighted in the boxes. This light shows through a red glass, and at night as well as in the day can be seen easily for several squares. Inside the box is a private telephone for the patrolman to receive or deliver a message from the captain at the police station.

The boxes are also fire alarm boxes. At the top of each box is a key with which to open the box in case of a fire. The glass holding the key in place is broken, and this releases the key, and also makes it a fire alarm box. The door is opened, but the phone is not used for fire. Instead a small lever is pulled down, and then released. This gives in the alarm to the fire station.

The boxes were installed by J. W. Frazer, of Elyria, O., who has made many friends in the city. He is an expert electrician, and installed the switchboard and operator's desk in quick time.

The first alarm received over the combination fire and police alarm boxes was received last night at the Central station at 8:20 o'clock. A fuse on a light pole at Seventh street and Kentucky avenue caught the pole. Box 333 at Seventh street and Broadway was pulled. The damage was small. The new system worked splendidly.

Constipation

"For over nine years I suffered with chronic constipation and during this time I had to take an injection of warm water once every 24 hours before I could have an action on my bowels. Happily I tried Cascarets, and today I am a well man. During the nine years, before I used Cascarets I suffered untold misery with internal piles. Thanks to you, I am free from 'em' that this morning. You can use this in behalf of suffering humanity. B. F. Fisher, Roanoke, Ill.

CHAPTER XVII.

Colonel Bill Hamilton Plays His Lone Hand.

Young Haldane's first duty was to distribute manifestos to the newspapers as far as his copies permitted. Having discharged his errand, with the one copy which he had reserved for himself, he headed for home, hitting up a tremendous pace as he raced along the almost deserted streets.

Before he had left to warn Gormly, he had in a few hasty words given his sister an inkling of what was about to happen. He knew that she would be awaiting the result of his interview with an anxiety not to be measured. In a short time, therefore, he placed the confession in her hands. With straining eyes and throbbing heart the girl devoured the type-written pages.

Her feelings were a singular compound of varying emotions. For one thing, there was relief that it was no worse; for another, there was admiration at the boldness and courage with which the man had grappled with a desperate situation; the dexterity and resource with which in perfect honor and dignity he had extricated himself from the dilemma in which the opposition had sought to plunge him; the magnificent audacity with which he had faced the crisis and dominated the interview; lastly, there was a keen, terrible pang of jealousy and bitterness toward that other woman. It was this last emotion that was self-revealing.

Eleanor Haldane knew now that she loved this man. She realized in this unveiling of her heart that probably she had loved him all the time; that the other feelings and emotions which he had stirred in her heart and she had sought to characterize by different words were now blended into passion as great as his own.

She sat quite silently, staring at the paper, reading the lines over and over again, thinking her thoughts, until her brother, who had absented himself for a brief space, came back into the room.

"Well," he said, "what are you going to do?"

"Will you take a note to him to-night?" she asked.

"Not now," was the answer. "It's too late. I begged him to go to bed and try to get some rest. He will need all his strength tomorrow."

"But this night—"

"I don't care what it is, you can't get it to him tonight. Besides that isn't the best way."

The girl sat down at her desk, picked up a pen and drew a sheet of paper toward her. She knew what was in her brother's mind. She knew what would be the best way after all as well as he. Well, she would do it!

"What will father say?" she asked half-curiously.

"He will have enough to do explaining his part in this transaction to say anything about anything else."

"You don't think that he—"

"I am sorry to say it," answered young Haldane gravely, "but it was father who gave me the clue, you know, and I am dead certain that the whole ring have put the chief of police up to his dirty work."

He turned away as he spoke and hung his head in shame. Eleanor Haldane had already gone through the fires, and to her overwrought soul it seemed that no further humiliation could be brought upon her.

"Maybe," she said at last, forcing herself to speak with trembling lips and sinking heart, "he won't care after—"

"Don't be a fool, sis!" said her brother roughly, yet not unkindly. "He cares more for you now than anything on earth except his election, and I don't know but that he would even let that slide."

"He wouldn't!" was the answer. "That day at Louise Stewart's, father offered me to him if he would not publish that matter about the Tractor company, and—"

"And he refused!"

"Yes."

"Great God! I didn't think the old man could sink so low."

"That isn't all either," she went on dreamily; "for I repeated the offer."

"What!" cried her brother.

"Yes. I asked him if I said I would marry him, whether he would stop the publication."

"And he refused you?"

"He did."

"God! that's a man if ever there was one!"

"Yes," was the answer, "and that is why I am taking this step now. If he had accepted me, I should have despised him. He would have sunk," she said bitterly, "to our family level."

"Never you mind about our level, sis," said the man gently. "There are few people on earth that are as high as your level; and if Gormly ever does get you, he'll be mighty lucky."

"Thank you," said the girl simply. "Now, I want you to help me with what I have to write."

Haldane seated himself by her side, and the two heads were soon busily bent over the desk.

While all this was happening up town, matters were stirring down town. The editor-in-chief of The Planet, belated at a dinner, happened to come in for a final inspection just as the night editor finished reading the first copy of Gormly's communication.

"What do you think of that?" he said, tossing it over.

A few moments sufficed to put the editor, who was one of the coolest and most self-contained of men, in possession of the contents. He shook his head.

"It's bad business," he remarked, handing it back.

"Will it beat him?"

"I don't know," was the answer. "I think not. If ever a man did atone for criminal folly or carelessness by his life, Gormly has. He seems to have been more stung against than sinning, anyway. People generally like a man who tries to brace up and do the square thing, and if they had a few days to think it over, I believe it would do him more good than harm; but you see the election comes," he looked at his watch. It was after one o'clock in the morning, "tomorrow."

"Of course, we will want to say something editorially about it."

"Certainly," was the answer. "I will do it myself."

He sat down at his desk, took the paper up again, scanned it carefully.

"Look here," he said. "There is something concealed about this."

"What is it?" asked the subordinate.

"Well, in the first place it doesn't say who shot the man."

"Why, he says he wrote a confession."

"Yes, I know. I believe the woman fired the shot, and that he's trying to save her! If we could only settle that question, it would be something to soften the revelation."

"By jove!" cried the night editor, "that reminds me!" He picked up the letter. "Camp Kill Devil, Wyo! One of the cub reporters got a story the other day about some western adventures from a certain Bill Hamilton, an old Montana mine owner, and if I'm not mistaken Camp Kill Devil was mentioned."

"Where is the story?"

"I killed it."

"Where is the reporter? I hope you didn't kill him."

"No," was the answer. He tapped a bell on his desk. "Send Mr. Abbott to me if he's outside," he said to the messenger.

Fortune was in a complacent mood. Abbott had just come in from an assignment. He was preparing to go home when the summons reached him. Instantly he presented himself, nervous and trembling, and wondering what was up, before the two demi-gods who decided upon the destinies of the paper, and incidentally upon the fate of the reporters, cub and otherwise.

"Mr. Abbott," said the night editor sharply, "you brought a story in here the other day from a certain Bill Hamilton in which a Wyoming mining camp called Kill Devil, or some such name, was mentioned. Do you recall it?"

"Certainly, sir."

"I killed the story," said the night editor. "It was no good. But now we want very much to get hold of the man who gave it to you. Do you know where he is to be found?"

"Yes, sir. He's staying at the Waldorf."

"Go up and get him at once!" cut in the chief curtly. "My machine is down in the street. Get him up here if you have to kidnap him. Tell him we want to see him about George Gormly. We've got a story in which we think he would be interested."

"Yes, sir," returned Abbott.

He did not wait for any further instructions. He darted out of the room and in a few moments was whirling up the avenue.

Col. Bill Hamilton had gone to bed. The office force made some demur about awakening him; but when Abbott disclosed who he was, what he represented, and what interests were involved, they sent him up. Naturally Colonel Bill was somewhat annoyed at being disturbed; but as soon as Abbott mentioned the name of Gormly he was instantly on the alert.

"What is it?" he asked, peering through the open door.

"It's about George Gormly. The editor-in-chief of The Planet is at the office. He wants to see you immediately. It's the biggest thing that has ever come off in New York. He thinks that maybe you know something about it and can throw some light on it. I have a big car down here waiting for you."

"I'll be down in a minute," came the prompt answer.

"Please hurry, Colonel Hamilton! We're holding the presses, waiting for you. Don't stop for anything."

"Set right down there, young man," said Colonel Bill, closing the door, and see how quick one of the old die-with-their-boots-on crowd can get into his duds."

Colonel Hamilton was as good as his word. He did not wait for any undue physical adornment. In an incredibly short space of time he came out sufficiently clad for decency, and grabbing the young man by the arm he fairly ran down the corridor toward the elevator. The late diners were astonished as Colonel Bill and the young cub forced their way through the crowded hall to the automobile outside. The colonel had not forgotten the munitions of war, and he carried a tin box in his hand which he had snatched from his table as he left his bed room.

"Get us down to the office in double quick time," said the cub reporter to the chauffeur. "Never mind about fines. Bust up the machine, if necessary; but get us there! That's the old man's orders. We haven't got any time to spare," he yelled, as the big car started.

They went down the avenue at a terrific pace, despite the protests of the officers by whom they flashed in the night and the efforts that were made to report them and stop them.

"This way, sir," said the cub reporter, plotting him into the elevator at once. "Here you are!" he exclaimed after a wild sweep upward.

He led him through a couple of doors and ushered him into a big brightly lighted room where two men sat.

"It's All Right," He Shouted.

porter, plotting him into the elevator at once. "Here you are!" he exclaimed after a wild sweep upward.

He led him through a couple of doors and ushered him into a big brightly lighted room where two men sat.

"Col. Bill Hamilton, sir," said Abbott breathlessly. He almost felt like saluting and saying, "Come aboard, sir!"

"Thirty-two minutes," said the night editor, looking at his watch. "Very well done."

"Mr. Abbott, you may remain here, if you wish," said the editor to the cub. "It will be interesting for you to hear."

"Thank you, sir," said the delighted young reporter, making himself small and inconspicuous in a corner whence he could hear and see everything.

"You must excuse me," said the editor, "for having brought you down here so summarily at this hour of the night, but affairs of great moment—"

"You want to know about Gormly?"

"We do."

"Well, what is it?"

"Read this," said the editor.

Mosquito Poisoning.

The pestiferous mosquito is holding high carnival in the city to-night; neither screen nor bar excludes him from the bed-chamber; he seems to permeate the cracks and crevices and sing his nocturnal lullabies till we are exhausted and lose consciousness in sleep, when he gives us a hypodermic injection of malaria and other diseases according to his venom; under these conditions there is no escape; oil on ponds and gutters, now will not save us from this disease breeding and death dealing monster; but it is a pleasure to know that, while Hays Specific will not save us from these conditions, it will cure us of these poisons by purifying the blood and removing the cause for chills and fever.

He had long hair and a pensive look. He wrote a poem entitled "Why Do I Live?" He signed it "Augustus" and sent it to a magazine.

The editor wrote him as follows: "My Dear Augustus—The reason why you live is because you vent the poem by mail instead of bringing it personally."—Paris Modes.

THE WINNERS.

First race—(2:25 trot)—Waller J., first; Prince M., second; Palmer Clark, third. Time, 2:22 1/4.

Second race—(free-for-all pace)—Tuando, first; Jack the Ripper, second; Addie Wilkes, third. Time, 2:16 1/4.

Third race (three-fourth mile dash)—Sam Gill, first; De Ora, second; Ike Cohen, third. Time, 1:17 1/2.

Fourth race (one and one-eighth mile derby)—B. M. Rebo, first; Ionic, second; Silk Sox, third. Time, 1:57 1/2.

Fifth race (one-half mile dash)—Eva Tanguay, first; Mayflower, second; Dry Dollar, third. Time, 51 seconds.

Between 4,000 and 5,000 people witnessed the best racing card of the week yesterday afternoon at the West End fair grounds. The Paducah Derby, a mile and one-eighth, was the fourth race and B. M. Rebo, ridden by Jockey Fogg, won by two lengths over Ionic. Fogg has won every running race this week with the exception of the half-mile dash yesterday when he came in second on Mayflower. A kick was made against him by the other jockies who declared he carried a battery and he was searched when he weighed in after both races.

The 2:25 trot was one of the best races seen here. E. F. Frazier, owner of Palmer Clark refused to drive the horse because he is a runaway and Earl Walker took charge of him. The first and second heats Palmer Clark ran away but Walker pulled him down and got third money in the race. In the second heat all horses got away together, a pretty start. Sextell broke on the second lap but Driver Manley caught him back on his feet quickly. Prince M. broke just before reaching the wire in the second heat and finished that way. In the third heat every horse broke except Waller J., who was a likely looking contender, broke on the home stretch. The heats:

Palmer Clark (Walker) . . . 4 2 3

Sextell (Manley) . . . 3 4 3

Waller J. (A. J. Hook) . . . 1 1 1

Prince M. (J. H. Shook) . . . 2 3 2

Time, 2:22 1/4; 2:22 1/4; 2:24.

Free-For-All-Pace.

The first heat of the free-for-all-pace was declared by Starter Talbott as the best match in the week. Hotwella, the favorite, broke in the first heat and finished last. The horses got away together and were bunched throughout the course. The crowd cheered. Hotwella was out of condition. She had not been in the game for some time before the races began this week and Thursday's pace killed her, it is thought.

Tuando took three straight heats and Jack the Ripper finished second the second and third heats and third the first heat. The heats were:

Hotwella (Tandy) . . . 4 4 4

Tuando (McNeil) . . . 1 1 1

Jack the Ripper (Hook) . . . 3 2 2

Addie Wilkes (Walker) . . . 2 3 3

Time, 2:16 1/4; 2:16 1/4; 2:17.

San Gill won the three-quarter mile dash by a neck with De Ora second. Outlander finished last. The time was 1:17 1/2.

The feature of the running races was the Paducah Derby. B. M. Rebo took the lead at the start and kept ahead, winning the $125 purse. He finished two lengths ahead of Ionic in 1:57 1/2 minutes and Ionic finished second two lengths ahead of Silk Sox. Four Piece was "all in" throughout the race and came in fourth several lengths behind Silk Sox.

A Great Sale of Smart; Refined, Attractive Autumn Millinery

We go straight to the fountain head for our millinery. We are in closest touch with the foremost designers in America. We constantly bring to our patrons the newest creations and the latest models of fashion. Nowhere else in all of Paducah is there such exquisite millinery loveliness for such remarkable low prices. You can choose hats here next week from hundreds of beautiful styles.

Red Goose School Shoes

They are the styles to buy for your boys and girls of all ages.

Boys' School Suits

Our great sale of Boys' School Suits at bargain prices continues.

A Great October Dress Goods Sale

We have planned an enormous sale of best weaves in Dress Goods during October. We believe the goods and the low prices we will put upon them will captivate shoppers and meet the most resolute expectations of all who appreciate good goods at money-saving prices. We will make our Dress Goods Department claim a large share of your attention next week. We can not do better than ask you to come. We cannot do justice to the great variety of Dress Goods in this sale by merely quoting prices. We want you to see them over the counter and see how beautifully they will trim up and serve your purpose for elaborate dresses or for tailored suits. The prices are prices that will certainly make it to your interest to buy here.

Women's Beautiful Autumn Suits and Dresses

The new features of this season's Coat Suits are: The coats are short and jaunty, straight or slightly semi-fitted backs, shoulders straight and broad, with plain coat sleeves. While the skirts of the coats have ample fullness, they have the straight or clinging effect. But after all is said and done the proper coat suit to buy and to wear is the one that is most becoming to your figure and personal build. We believe that we have the becoming style for you that you'll like, and we'll be glad to show it to you.

We have received a number of lots this week by express that will be on sale Monday. We have decided to make the prices temptingly low. We have priced one lot at $10, one lot at $12, one lot at $13.50, one lot at $15, one lot at $16.50, one lot at $18, one lot at $20, one lot at $22.50 and one lot at $25.

New Autumn Dresses

For some reason but few women ask to see ready-to-wear dresses. We ought to be selling hundreds of them where we are only selling dozens and it is simply because you haven't seen them.

Silk Dresses

Monday we'll put one lot of Silk Dresses on sale at $12.00 each. There are black dresses and colored dresses in the lot. We want you to see them. We want your opinion. If they look bad to you, tell us; if they look good, say so. If it is to your interest, select one.

Woolen Dresses

Monday we'll put one lot of Woolen Dresses on sale at $13.50. They, too, are black and colors, made of different materials and in different styles. We bought them because we thought they were splendid. We believe it yet. Come and give us your candid opinion. You can't buy the materials, findings, trimmings and pay for the making for the low price we will sell you the same dress all ready to wear.

New Autumn Coats

The new Autumn Coats are full length. We have a multiplicity of desirable, attractive models. Among them is the new straight hipless coat, the full length semi-fitted coat and the modification of these styles, made of all the new and popular materials, in blacks, colors and mixtures. The prices range from $5 all the way up by easy stages to $25 each.

Children's Coats

Bearskin Coats, Plush Coats, Caracul Coats, Cloth Coats for Children from 1 to 14 years old. The prices range from $1.95 up to $15 each.

La France Shoes

La France are the correct shoes for women. Here in all the models and the popular leathers.

A Wonderful Array of Beautiful Autumn Waists

These handsome silk and other dressy waists are priced so temptingly low that you simply cannot resist them. The prices for these beautiful Autumn Waists range from $2.25 for tailored black taffeta all the way up to artistic effects around $5, $6 and $7 each. Worth seeing whether you buy or not.

Autumn Skirts

Correct skirts is such a pronounced feature of our Women's Ready-to-Wear Department that we ought never to fail to write about them. In addition to the many hundreds we now have ready to show you we are expecting many new additions to the stock the coming week. Matchless values all the way up from $3.50 to $15.

Autumn Underwear

The cold weather approaching will soon necessitate heavier weight underwear. Are you properly supplied? If not, why not choose now, before the hurry days set in? We have a comprehensive assortment for your whole family ready at prices that will make present buying an object.

A great assortment of the kinds of Union Suits you will want for yourself, for the children and for boys and girls of all ages.

A comprehensive assortment of two-piece garments for men, for women, for children and for boys and girls of all ages.

While raw materials are all higher our early advantageous cash buying enabled us to own underwear of more than the usual merit to sell you this fall at our old low prices.

Autumn Hosiery

Hosiery is plentiful. You can buy it anywhere, but not the good sorts we sell. But few things in the wardrobe wear out so rapidly as hose, and you never knew a child who could not keep its mother busy darning stockings all the time. It isn't how much you pay for hosiery; it's how good they are. Our values are good and the prices are low. We ask you in all candor where else in Paducah can you buy such heavy ribbed hose for boys and girls of all ages at 10c or 3 pairs for 25c?

Where else can you buy Women's Ribbed Top Hose at 2 pairs for 15c? Where else can you buy Men's 15c Socks at 3 pairs for 25c?

We can save you money on all other Hosiery. It was big cash buying at the right time that enables us to do it. Come and see.

Coulson Makes It a Tie.

Brooklyn, Oct. 1.—Brooklyn and Philadelphia played ten innings to a tie. Time was called on account of darkness. The locals had the game apparently safe up to the eighth inning, when the visitors batted in eight runs and took the lead, 9 to 6. Brooklyn tied it up in the ninth, when Coulson hit for a home run with two men on bases.

Hughey too Popular.

Detroit, Oct. 1.—Manager Jennings has received new proof of his popularity in Detroit. Some swindle has been circulating among well-to-do people, representing himself as a committee to collect funds to purchase a home for Jennings and his bride. Jennings is to be married in November. Friends without waiting to investigate, jumped at the chance and shelled out checks. Congressman Denby was one of those who gave $50. Jennings was chagrined and angry when he heard of the swindle.

Shake-Up in Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh, Oct. 1.—The scandal in connection with the Kilbane-Kaufmann fight is likely to close all Pittsburgh fight clubs. Gamblers forced the first decision in the history of Pennsylvania boxing to collect a bet. The police have the case. Both fighters claim innocence. One club is already closed. Twenty others are threatened.

Plotsman and Jelsan.

Towing a large drill boat and sounding barge the towboat J. D. Watson arrived at midnight Friday from the upper Ohio and after taking on coal and supplies at Paducah she left at 8 o'clock this morning for Ogden's landing to make soundings for the foundation of the lock and dam to be located between Joppa and Cairo. The outfit is owned by the Ohio River Survey company and F. J. Loukes is in charge of the drill boat. Captain E. E. Vorian is in charge of the Watson. The drill boat has been working between here and Louisville making soundings and will be engaged between Ogden's landing and Mounds, Ill., for over a week until a suitable location can be found. The locks and dams on their completion will give the Ohio river between Pittsburgh and Cairo a nine foot stage the year round and the cost of the improvements will run into the millions.

The government gauge at 7 o'clock this morning read 5 feet, showing the river was stationary yesterday. It will begin to fall today and recede at a slow rate.

After taking on coal and stores the towboat Lyda departed this morning for the Tennessee river to load ties. Captain George Doubleday, general manager of the Ryman steamboat line at Nashville, arrived yesterday from Louisville and left last night for Nashville.

Pilot Boyce Berryman left today for Memphis on business.

Both the Lowry and Dunbar were in port from Evansville yesterday. There was no Evansville boat today. The Ohio arrived on time today with a good trip of freight and a big passenger list. She left for Golconda at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The Cowling leaves at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon for Metropolis. She is doing a good business.

The Dick Fowler returned on time last night from Cairo after a light business. She left this morning at 8 o'clock for Cairo.

The J. B. Richardson will leave this evening at 6 o'clock for Waterloo, Ala. She will have a big passenger and freight list.

The Clyde is due from Waterloo, Ala., Monday night.

The Bob Dudley is due tomorrow night from Nashville and will leave at noon Monday for a return trip to Nashville.

The Lowry and Dunbar will be the Evansville boats Monday. The ferryboat Robertson took out a big excursion last night. She is making her regular trips on time today.

The Paducah marine ways closed down this afternoon in order to give the men a half-holiday to attend the

MILKMEN FINED

TWO PLEAD GUILTY AND PROMISE TO DO BETTER.

State Examiners Promise to Come Back to Paducah This Fall.

Upon pleas of guilty two dairymen, charged with selling milk containing too high a percentage of water, were fined $20 and costs yesterday in county court. The dairymen, escaped with a moderate fine upon their confession of guilt and a promise not to repeat the act. The officials of the state experiment station, who swore out the warrant and were behind the prosecution, arrived today for the trial.

The lowest fine is $10, but the moderate fine is expected to be a lesson to the other dairymen and to assist the experiment station in officials in maintaining a high standard for milk. Those who arrived for the trial today are: R. M. Allen, Dr. J. O. LaBach and J. W. McFarlan and Elmer Roberts, the inspectors who made a thorough examination of the milk sold in Paducah several weeks ago. The officials announced that they will return to Paducah some time this fall and another thorough examination will be made to ascertain whether the law is being violated.

While in the city the officials left copies of a meat ordinance recommended for adoption by the state experiment officials.
